

And their columns over 135 miles into Mexico without the loss of a single man killed. A few horses and mules perished from the trials of the desert trail.

The Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth Regiments of Infantry (colored), who left Columbus yesterday, were to-day following the well-worn trail Pershing's division left on its southward dash, which began at Columbus last Wednesday. Other troops continue to pour into Columbus to aid in the world's biggest man hunt.

CARRANZA MAY AGREE TO USE OF RAILROADS FOR SENDING SUPPLIES.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—(Gen. Carranza to-day replied to the American Government's request for use of Mexican railroad lines for movement of supplies to the punitive expedition with a request for more complete information of exactly what the War Department wants. The information he asks will be furnished.

It was understood Gen. Carranza wants information of the extent to which the United States expects to use the railroad, and probably assurances that the line is to be used only for furnishing supplies. Administration officials realize that Carranza is dealing with a difficult public sentiment in Mexico and that use of the railroad by American troops unless fully understood, might lead to friction.

It is believed Carranza is favorably inclined toward the request. His reply has been forwarded from Queretaro.

Officials of the Carranza Government were reported in a despatch to the State Department as "thoroughly understanding the position of the United States." The despatch was from Special Agent Rodgers and apparently was sent after extended conversation with Mexican officials.

Gen. Funston reported that threatened disturbances across the line from President, D. C., were greatly exaggerated and that comparative quiet prevailed throughout the Big Bend Country.

Gen. Carranza has formally protested against American troops occupying Casas Grandes in their pursuit of Villa, and the American Government has replied that the troops have been ordered specifically not to occupy Casas Grandes or any other towns or cities in Mexico.

The protest and reply were included in an exchange of notes between Secretary Polk of the State Department and Eliseo Arredondo, Ambassador Designate to the United States from Mexico.

After a conference early to-day between President Wilson and Mr. Polk, it became known that Mr. Polk in a note forwarded to Mexico yesterday.

REPORTS BY PERSHING SHOW THE U. S. TROOPS ARE NOT NEAR CLASH.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 20.—Little reason to believe that a clash between the American troops and Francisco Villa and his bandits would occur to-day, or even tomorrow, was indicated in reports to-day to Major Gen. Funston from Gen. Pershing, commander of the expeditionary forces.

Gen. Funston's reports told the manner in which the forces are operating south of Casas Grandes. Most of the information reaching Gen. Pershing indicated that Villa was heading for the mountains in the Guerrero district.

The force actually being used in the chase of Villa was strengthened to-day by the arrival at Casas Grandes of detachments of the Thirtieth Infantry. It is assumed here that Gen. Pershing will immediately avail himself of the service of the eight aeroplanes at his disposal.

Gen. Pershing reported that the garrison at Casas Grandes was "friendly, but passive," and that the Mexican colonists there looked upon the Americans as their "freedom-fighters."

Reassuring reports from the border near Ojinaga were received here to-day. Col. Sibbey reported that he talked with Col. Rojas, the commander of the garrison at Ojinaga, who was reported killed by his own men last week, and was assured that conditions along that part of the border were good.

CHORUS GIRL FINED $25; 'HIT UP' ONE OF HER CARS

She Knew Both Machines, but if Officers Said One Went Fast, Why, It Must Be So.

Louise Van Loan of the Winter Garden chorus and No. 41 Clarkson Street, Brooklyn, stood up before Magistrate Marsh to-day in a bearskin overcoat—not the one she wears in the show—to be charged with speeding in her French racing car.

She tremblingly declared that she had been able to buy only two cars with her savings, thought she knew them well enough not to let them exceed the speed limits; but if the policeman said she had—well, she must have, that's all.

The Magistrate fined her $25, which she sadly handed over.

ORPET WINS APPEAL FOR CHANGE OF VENUE

Claim Made That Presiding Judge Is Prejudiced Against Student, Accused of Murder.

WAUKESHA, Ill., March 20.—Will H. Orpet, University of Wisconsin student, accused of killing Marion Frances Lambert, was granted a change of venue from Judge C. C. Edwards of Waukegan to another Judge of the same circuit. The petition asking for the venue change alleged that Judge Edwards was prejudiced against Orpet.

Discussion of the motion to quash the indictment and setting a date for trial will rest with the Judge to whom the case is next presented.

FOUR MIDDIES EXPELLED

ANNAPOLIS, Md., March 20.—(Continued from page 1.)—Dismissal of four midshipmen from the Naval Academy was announced to-day. C. H. Lyle of Tennessee, first-class, and Thomas H. Davis of South Carolina and Francis J. Kelly of New York, third class, were dismissed by order of Secretary Daniels on charges of drinking James H. Betts of Iowa was expelled for gross disobedience.

MEXICO AGREES ON 2-YEAR TERM FOR BANDIT HUNT

Text of Pact Between Republics Announced by Senator Acuna.

FRIENDSHIP REITERATED.

New Argument Repeats Amity Phraseology of Treaty of 1848.

MEXICO CITY, March 20.—Following is the text of the circular sent by telegraph to all the State Governors of Mexico by Minister of the Interior Acuna.

"After having transmitted to the Government which is under your worthy charge the note sent by the Government of the United States to the Government of Mexico, through Mr. Silliman on March 12, and likewise the answer given by the Citizen First Chief accepting the proposal for the pursuit of the bandits growing out of the Columbus, N. M., incident, the Citizen First Chief charges me to bring to your knowledge, as I have the honor hereby to do, the terms of the agreement celebrated in the name of their respective Governments by Citizen Matias Romero, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of the Mexican Government, and Frederick Frelinghuysen, for Secretary of State for the United States of America, authorizing the reciprocal passage of the boundary line by troops of their respective Governments in pursuit of savage Indians, and also article 21 of the Treaty of Peace and Friendship signed on Feb. 2, 1848, which is still in force.

"These facts are communicated to you that you may have full knowledge of the notes which have passed between the two Governments, in the remote event of a rupture of relations. The terms of the agreement are as follows:

"Article 1.—It is agreed that regular Federal troops of the two republics may reciprocally pass the boundary line when they do so in pursuit of a party of savage Indians, in accordance with the conditions expressed in the following articles:

"Article 2.—The reciprocal passage referred to in Article 1 can only be made in desert and unpopulated portions of the boundary line. For the purpose of this agreement desert and unpopulated sections will include all those points at least two leagues distant from any camp or town of either country.

"Article 3.—The passage of troops from one to the other country cannot take place from Captain Leal, on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande, a point twenty-two Mexican leagues, or fifty-two English miles, up the river from Piedras Negras to the mouth of the Rio Grande.

PURSUERS TO RETIRE WHEN MISSION IS ACCOMPLISHED.

"Article 4.—The pursuing force will retire to its own country as soon as it has defeated the pursued force or loses its track. In no case will the forces of either country establish themselves in foreign territory for a longer time than is necessary for the pursuit of the party whom they follow.

"Article 5.—The chief of the force crossing the boundary line in pursuit of Indians must, before crossing the frontier, advise if possible the military chief or the immediate authority of the country whose territory he enters.

"Article 6.—Alarms committed by forces which pass into territory of the other nationality will be punished according to the gravity of the offense and in accordance with the laws of the country to which the forces belong as if committed on their own soil, their Government being obliged to retire them to the frontier.

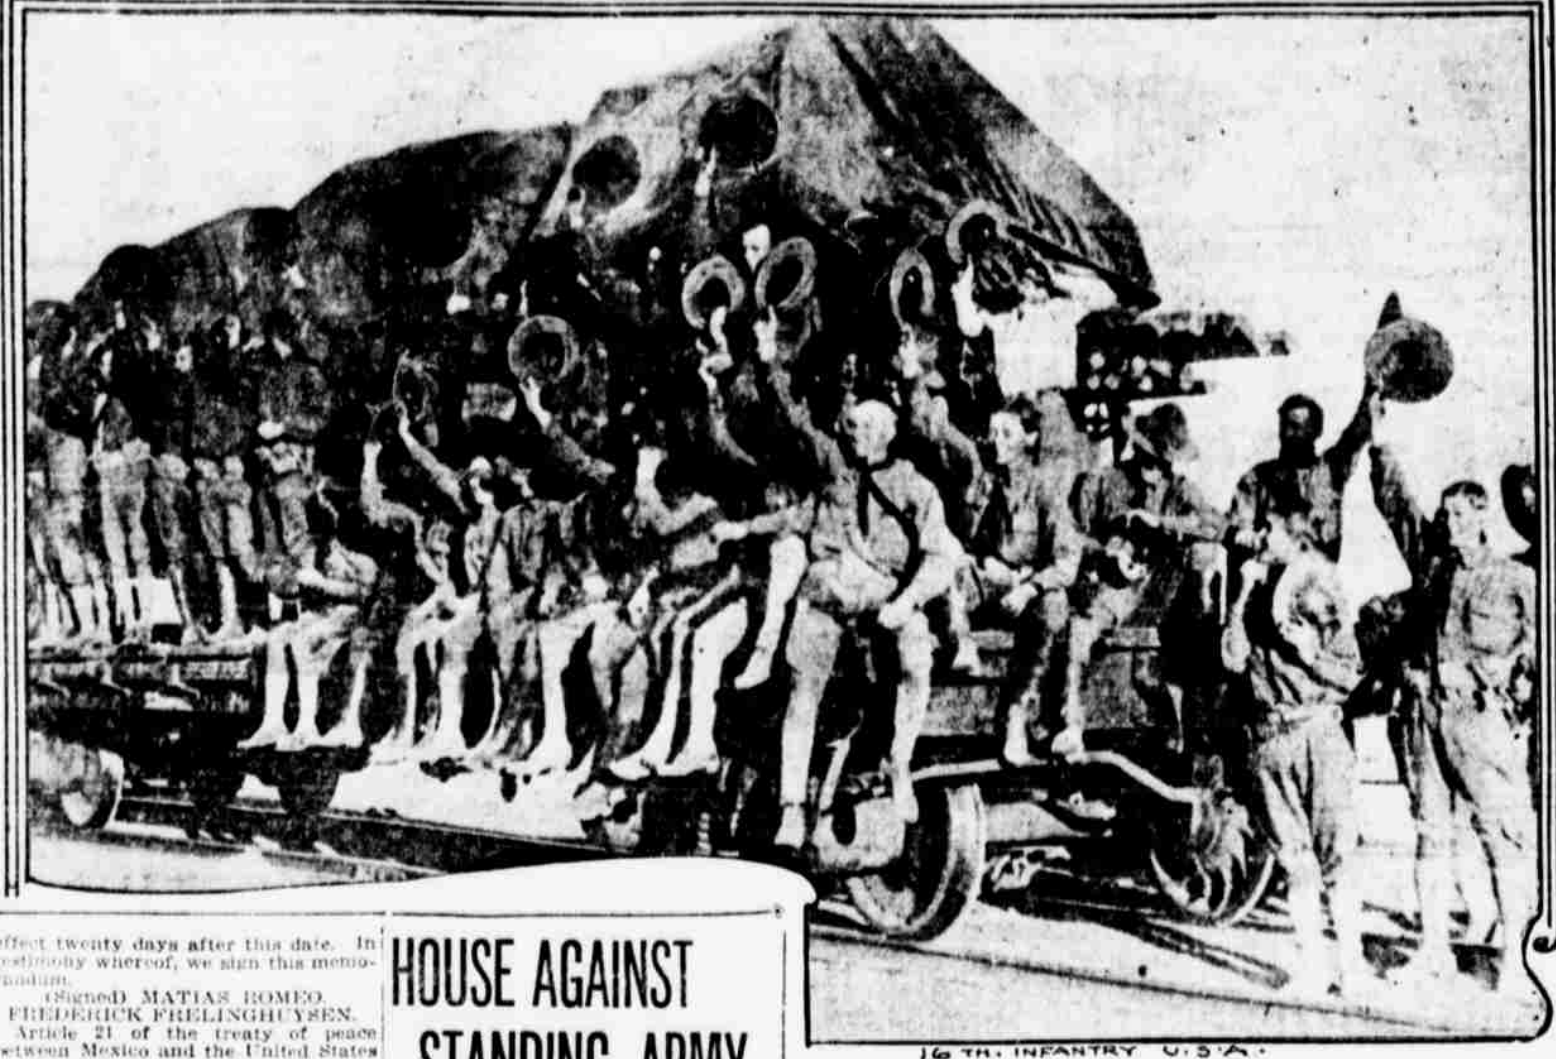

(Article 7 missing.)

"Article 8.—This convention will remain in force for two years, but may be terminated by either Government by the giving of notice four months in advance.

NO CONFIRMATION OF AGREEMENT NECESSARY.

Article 9.—As the Senate of Mexico has authorized the President of the republic, in conformity with Paragraph 2, Letter B, Section 3, Article 72 of the Reformed Constitution of Nov. 6, 1874, to permit the passage of Mexican troops to the United States and to the United States, and as the Constitution of the United States gives its President the right to order such passage without consent of the Senate, this agreement does not need ratification by the Senate of either country and will take effect from the date of its signing.

HOUSE AGAINST STANDING ARMY OF 220,000 MEN

Kahn Amendment to Administration Bill Is Voted Down, 183 to 103.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—Representative Kahn's proposal to put the regular army at 220,000 men, an increase of 80,000 over the Administration bill, was lost in the House to-day by a vote of 183 to 103.

Less than a dozen Democrats voted for the 220,000 figure. About fifty Republicans voted against it. Speaker Clark and Democratic Leader Kitchin both were against the Kahn amendment and Republican Leader Mann for it.

Previous to the vote on Kahn's plan the House roared down to defeat an amendment by Representative Fuller of Illinois to make the army 250,000.

Representative Crago's amendment providing for 60,000 more men than the Hay bill calls for, to serve one year with the colors and six years in reserve, was defeated by a vote of 134 to 82.

CROSSES SEA IN TRUNK; CAPTURED AT KIRKWALL

Wife Keeps German Captain Under Cover All Way Over Atlantic.

LONDON, March 20.—After crossing the Atlantic from New York in his wife's trunk, Capt. Roewer, a German engineer, was found by the British at Kirkwall and interned, according to a story appearing in a Danish newspaper to-day.

Capt. Roewer was an engineer at Kiaochow, China. He escaped after the capture of Kiaochow by the Japanese and made his way to New York, whence he and his wife sailed for Copenhagen. To escape detection the captain arranged to cross the Atlantic in his wife's cabin trunk. He remained in the trunk during the daytime, breathing through a ventilator inserted over the name plate, and emerged from the trunk during the night.

None of the passengers suspected the ruse, although it was noticed that exceptionally large meals were sent to Frau Roewer's cabin. At Kirkwall the captain left the trunk, fearing he would be detected when inspectors searched the luggage, and was caught in the packing room. His wife was permitted to proceed, reaching Copenhagen yesterday.

FRENCH DESTROYER TORPEDOED AND SUNK

Went to the Bottom in One Minute After Being Hit, Says Berlin Report.

BERLIN, March 20.—An Austrian submarine torpedoed a French destroyer of the Fourche type in the Adriatic Saturday, according to an official statement from the Austrian Admiralty telegraphed here to-day. The destroyer sank in one minute.

In all probability the French destroyer was the Renaudin, whose loss was admitted by the French Ministry of Marine last night. The Renaudin is of about the same tonnage as the Fourche, and, according to the French statement, was sunk in the Adriatic Saturday morning.

ASSASSIN FIRES ON THE PREMIER OF BULGARIA

Two Shots Fail to Hit Radoslavoff as He Rides in Carriage—Coachman Wounded.

LONDON, March 20.—Premier Radoslavoff of Bulgaria was attacked by a would-be assassin while riding in an open carriage in the streets of Sofia yesterday, according to despatches from Rome and Paris this afternoon.

A postal employee named Ivanoff fired two shots at Radoslavoff. It was stated. The first bullet went wild. The second wounded the Prime Minister's coachman. Before Ivanoff could fire again a student sprang upon him and disarmed him. The Premier himself escaped unhurt.

The Bulgarian Premier is one of the dominating figures in Balkan politics. He occupied a particularly prominent position during the negotiations preceding Bulgaria's entrance into the war.

Rome despatches four days ago reported that a number of bombs were found under the Bulgarian royal palace at Sofia and that several arrests were made. It was rumored in foreign capitals that an attempt was made on the life of Czar Ferdinand of Bulgaria two weeks ago.

SAYS SHE HAD TO STAND ON ONE FOOT ON B. R. T.

Crush Was So Great Miss Reed Couldn't Find Room for Both, Commission Hears.

Imagine a pretty, refined girl hanging desperately to a B. R. T. strap and standing on one leg like a stork for three-quarters of an hour because there wasn't room on the overcrowded floor for both feet. Every time she attempted to feel out a resting place for her dainty foot the owner of some corn or bunion in the immediate vicinity would emit a protest.

The girl, who says she was forced to the one-legged endurance test by the B. R. T., is a daughter of Clarence Reed, an art publisher, who lives at No. 547 Bedford Avenue, Richmond Hill.

Mr. Reed appeared before the Public Service Commission to-day and drew a very graphic picture of the conditions that exist on the line which runs from Chambers Street, Manhattan, to Cypress Hills. He said the night rush, in particular, was a disgrace.

Mr. Reed began to complain of the congestion at the Chambers Street Station as early as February, 1916, he said, and didn't get even an acknowledgment of his letter until two months had elapsed. Then he had to wait at least a year before he was given a hearing. There were others present to back up Mr. Reed.

A SAFE FAMILY MEDICINE

Father John's Medicine is Best for Colds, Grip, Sore Throat and Stubborn Coughs and as a Body Builder.

Father John's Medicine is an old-fashioned family remedy—not a patent medicine, but the prescription of a learned doctor. It is free from opium, morphine, chloroform or poisonous drugs which are found in many of the patent medicines; it contains no alcohol or other stimulants. It is a Food Medicine, pure and wholesome. Father John's Medicine has had more than 50 years' success for colds, grip and throat troubles. It is invaluable as a tonic and body builder and restores weak and run-down systems to health and strength. It nourishes the system and makes flesh.

We want to warn you against the danger in taking medicines which rely on stimulating or nerve-deadening drugs for their effect. They weaken the system and leave you exposed to disease, cause nervous prostration and a craving for drugs.

Father John's Medicine is a safe medicine for all the family; for the children as well as older people, because it does not contain alcohol or dangerous drugs in any form.—Advt
